Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Manager's Name],

I am writing to apply for the part-time Medical Assistant position at Living Well Health Centre, as advertised on [website]. I am a certified AAMA Medical Assistant with 5+ years of professional experience in patient liaison, record management, reception, and general office administration. I have worked at a range of medical facilities, from private physician office settings to large, state-run hospitals. In my recent position as the Medical and Services Assistant at the George Washington University Hospital, Washington, DC, I was trained in administering injections, recording EKG's, patient scheduling, medical coding (ICD9/10 and CPT) and phlebotomy/blood draws.

I am certified in Basic Life Support (BLS)/ CPR for adults, children, and infants, and am highly skilled in using the MS Office Suite and Electronic Health Records (EHR) software. Specific highlights of my career include:

- Enhancing patient relations and reducing critical wait times
- Developing cost-effective administrative procedures
- Training staff members in patient interaction and communication

I have a Bachelor's in Health Care Management from Herzing University. I am confident that my extensive medical and administrative skills will be of benefit to this position and to the Living Well Health Centre. I have attached a copy of my resume with this email. If you need any further information, please call me at (xxx) xxx-xxxx.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
[YOUR NAME]

Reverse Phone Number LookupA reverse phone number lookup is done when you have only a phone number and want to know who it belongs to before you call. The platform allows you to compare book prices from over 35 websites that trade books. Comic Book Classifieds If you have any old comics or graphic novels you no longer want, Comic Book Classifieds may be the best avenue for selling. Submit the ISBNs and get an instant quote through the website or free app, or scan the books using the app and get your quote in minutes instead of waiting during the bidding process. Because everyone is pressed for time, the need to look up the summary of this book or that one is sometimes a priority. If that's not enough, some of these book apps and subscription services also offer links to videos, reports and TED talks for the books, as well. Some of these services provide audio, PDF, and infographics of the books. You can choose between using the trade-in program and setting up a seller account. If you have old textbooks lining your shelves, selling them not only means revenue for you — it also goes a long way in helping students acquire the course materials they need. MORE FROM ASKMONEY.COM The purpose of these websites and blogs is to present an informal setting for people to enjoy books without feeling the pressure of making a purchase. Some results may be free, while others may require a fee to unlock the information. Reverse Address LookupA reverse address lookup is another type of search you can do if you only have part of the information about the number you need to find. All you need is to type in your book's ISBN, and you'll have access to multiple price options. With the trade-in program, you submit your book's ISBN and fill out a questionnaire on your book's condition. Additionally, if you don't sell any books, you don't have to pay the monthly fee. For example, your item description should include the author, publishing date and edition. With a seller account, you'll list all your books and build different product pages for every book. For example, you can upload photos of the book and use the website's sales data to attract more customers. Other information that may be included if you're looking up a business is the company profile and a link to the company website. Then, find the search box and enter the name of the person or business you want to call. Results to Expect If you're searching in the Telkom directory, expect to find the name, address and phone number of the party you want to call, if they have a listed number. All you need to do is use Decluttr's valuation engine or the free iOS or Android app to get an instant price for your book. Once you accept an offer, you ship the books for free to their destination. All you need to do is enter your book's ISBNs and view the available offers for the books. It's a wise idea to give your titles a higher chance of selling by listing them on the right marketplace. These book summary sites contain information about the author, release date, characters, plot, and then move on to the summaries, like a short summary of Othello, for example. To do a reverse number lookup, choose a site that offers the service, such as WhitePages, navigate to the phone lookup section and enter the number. CampusBooks.com also offers free shipping with payment processing through checks, cash, store-credit payments and PayPal. To do this, open your device and run a search for either a specific online directory, such as Telkom or WhitePages. Amazon then makes you an offer for the book. Amazon On Amazon, you have a few options for selling everyday books. For example, they may need a summary of Roberts rules or a simple summary of Macbeth to help them write a research paper, and a book summary website will help them achieve that goal. If that's not enough, some of these book apps and subscription services also provide links to videos, reports and TED talks for the books, as well. YouTube Channels Offering Book Summaries If you would rather not read a summary of books, there are many YouTube channels offering book summaries online. If you've hesitated in the past to sell online because of the complicated listing process, it helps to know that things are much easier now — and there are buyers out there interested in every title you can imagine.
